Welcoming a New School Year!

Nuevo Año Escolar

"This saying is hard; who can accept it?" The words of Jesus' disciples in today's Gospel must sound familiar. At some point in our lives, you and I have said it about some article of our faith. Christianity makes firm demands on our ethical behavior and gives no easy answers for suffering. Many disciples were confused and dismayed by Jesus' words in the Bread of Life Discourse. Not all of them, however, had the same reaction.

When the disciples question Jesus' teaching, he confirms its truth. "The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life." For some, Jesus' reassurance was not enough. These disciples do not question Jesus further or wrestle with their lack of understanding. The mighty deeds Jesus has done fade to the background. "Many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him." For them, their doubt proves too much.

Jesus turns to the Twelve, knowing that confusion lives in their hearts as well. Peter answers. "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." Notice this is not a confession of perfect understanding. It is a confession of faith in Jesus. The precise words may still confuse them, but they believe the One who said them.

In our own lives, we face doubt, confusion, and disillusionment in our Christian faith. The same choice available to the disciples is available to us. Do you have faith in Jesus, even when you lack perfect understanding? Will you stay or will you go? What do you do with your doubt?

—Cycles of Faith

Jesus is calling us to his friendship and intimacy through the Eucharist. What will it take to truly believe that Jesus comes to us under the appearances of bread and wine? In the Gospels, Jesus repeatedly speaks about having a heart of a child. Only the childlike will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. A childlike attitude means to be open to the marvels of God in ordinary things. The teachings of Jesus were not only difficult to understand but also humanly impossible. Like the disciples, we too face the challenges of getting involved in the life of the church, at the heart of which is the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Many may disbelieve in the Eucharist and in the claim of Jesus to be the bread of life for humanity, but we must remain in the Lord. Like Peter, we say, "To whom shall we go; you have the words of eternal life." Let us continue to marvel at God's revelation. Jesus continues to reveal himself to us in the Mass and in our daily routines. We look for ways to grow in our knowledge and friendship with the Lord. He is here with us. The Psalm tells us, "when the just cry out, the LORD hears them, and from all their distress he rescues them. The LORD is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."

Our parish school began last Tuesday. I warmly welcomed our returning and new students. I felt their excitement and the enthusiasm of the teachers and parents as well. We also look forward to the start of High School Ministry and our faith formation classes in September. There is so much to do and we pray that the Lord will bless all our plans and all our hard work. This is the new school year that the Lord has made possible for all us. We bless and thank the Lord.

I wholeheartedly thank you also for your continued support to our parish. Your weekly and regular contributions to our parish of St. Didacus keep us on the right road. Thank you very much.

Fr. Rick

Everyone is Welcome to Attend the Anointing of the Sick Mass
Saturday,
September 1st
9am

Like all the sacraments, holy anointing was instituted by Jesus during his earthly ministry. The Catechism explains, "This sacred anointing of the sick was instituted by Christ our Lord as a true and proper sacrament of the New Testament. It is alluded to by Mark, but is recommended to the faithful and promulgated by James the apostle and brother of the Lord" (CCC 1511; Mark 6:13; Jas. 5:14-15). All are welcome to attend this Mass.

Help us Celebrate the 15th Anniversary of the Spanish Mass at St. Didacus!

On Sunday, September 2nd we will celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Spanish Mass at St. Didacus Church. The whole parish is invited to help us celebrate this special day! On Sunday, September 2nd at 11:30am we will have a bilingual Mass (instead of our usual Spanish Mass) so that our whole community is welcome. Following Mass, you are invited to lunch in the Parish Hall provided by the Hispanic community. See today's bulletin insert for your invitation.

The Joy of Giving

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a partner in the work of the Lord. A partner is a person who invests time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports the parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something and not merely talk about it!

Saint Monica

Monday, August 27th

She was a mother who tried to give her children the best education so that they would use their gifts for God. Her son Augustine turned from God's ways. She made her tears and sadness a prayer for his return to God.

Saint Augustine

Tuesday, August 28th

He turned back to God's ways and discovered how wonderful God is. He wrote and spoke of this goodness and his love for God. He said that to stand with God is to live forever.

St. Monica & St. Augustine, Pray for us!

This summer we're taking a closer look at Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation "Rejoice and Be Glad—A Call to Holiness in Today's World."

Last week we dipped our toe into Chapter 3: In Light of the Master. In that chapter Pope Francis pointed out that the Beatitudes are to be used as a blue print to becoming more holy.

Hopefully, you had a chance to go to our website to follow the link to read the chapter yourself. We look next at Chapter 4 entitled: Signs of Holiness in Today's World. The Pope points to signs and spiritual attitudes that are necessary to live the life to which the Lord calls us.

Here is a sampling of the Pope's thoughts in that chapter:

On selfishness: We need to recognize and combat our aggressive and selfish inclinations, and not let them take root...we can always cling to the anchor of prayer.

On humility: If you are unable to suffer and offer up a few humiliations, you are not humble and you are not on the path to holiness...it is a grace to be sought in prayer: "Lord, when humiliations come, help me to know that I am following in your footsteps."

On joy: The Christian life is "joy in the Holy Spirit, for the necessary result of the love of charity is joy; since every lover rejoices at being united with the beloved...the effect of charity is joy."

On boldness: Holiness...is a boldness, an impulse to evangelize and to leave a mark in this world...The Lord bids us to spend our lives in his service. Clinging to him, we are inspired to put all our charisms at the service of others. We need to open the door of our hearts to Jesus, who stands and knocks. Sometimes I wonder, though, if perhaps Jesus is already inside us and knocking on the door for us to let him escape from our stale self-centeredness.

On community: Growth in holiness is a journey in community, side by side with others...A community that cherishes the little details of love, whose members care for one another and create an open and evangelizing environment, is a place where the risen Lord is present, sanctifying it in accordance with the Father's plan.

On prayer: We should remember that holiness consists in a habitual openness to the transcendent, expressed in prayer and adoration...the prayerful reading of God's word enables us to pause and listen to the voice of the Master.

On the Eucharist: Meeting Jesus in the Scriptures leads us to the Eucharist, where the written word attains its greatest efficacy, for there the living Word is truly present. In the Eucharist, the one true God receives the greatest worship the world can give him, for it is Christ himself who is offered. When we receive him in Holy Communion, we renew our covenant with him and allow him to carry out ever more fully his work of transforming our lives.

These are just some of the Pope's thoughts. Read all that Pope Francis has to say about holiness in Chapter 4 of his Exhortation by visiting our parish website: www.stdidacuschurch.org. Next week, we'll wrap up by taking a look at the last chapter: Spiritual Combat, Vigilance and Discernment.

Loving God Through Service to Others

Mark your calendars for our upcoming parish MINISTRY FAIR

Loving God Through Service to Others
at all the Masses on September 22nd & 23rd

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." —Mark 9:35

Have you been looking to get involved in parish life and make connections with other parishioners? Here's your chance to see firsthand the many ministries and organizations here at St. Didacus and to talk with folks from each of them! Serving in a ministry is a great way to serve God's purposes here on earth as well as getting to know other parishioners and exploring your faith in the extended parish family. Join us outside of Church after Masses on Saturday, September 22nd and Sunday, September 23rd to explore all of the great opportunities available.

World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation
Saturday,
September 1st

In his encyclical, Laudato si', Pope Francis called us to live out an "integral ecology," which in simple terms means having right relationships with God, other human beings and the good things of the Earth.

The World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation is an occasion for spending time with family and friends as we transition into the beauty of the fall season. We invite you to integrate experiences of creation into your day so that you never lose your wonder in beholding God's unmatched artistry. Whether we take a walk in a local park, visit a place of striking natural beauty, or even celebrate a festive meal in which we enjoy the "fruits of creation" grown in our own gardens, we can come together with loved ones to pray and give thanks to our Creator for the abundance of blessings given to us this day, and for our life with him always.

When we celebrate the "World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation," let us remember the vital role the created world has in brining souls to God. It brings a new perspective in how we treat the earth and hopefully teaches us to be a good steward of God's wonderful gift to us.
