Will Power

A friend of mine was secretly hurt when the provisions of his mother's will were announced. He'd always assumed that his mother would bequeath her wedding ring to his daughter. She was the only granddaughter and his only sibling had no children. Instead, his mother left the ring to her goddaughter, a young woman who was not married.

Though he had great affection for the woman who now owned the ring, he began to feel angry and resentful toward her. He hated how it kept eating at him and finally he went to talk to his parish priest.

"What hurts the most?" asked the priest, gently. "It's that I wonder if my mom loved me or loved my daughter. I know that's crazy, but that's what I begin to feel," he responded.

"So why don't you make a new will listing all the gifts your mother did bestow upon you and your daughter in her lifetime? What would you start with?"

"She always made us laugh," he said, a huge smile dawning on his face, erasing the worry lines. "And she always made my daughter's favorite meal whenever we'd come over to visit. And she . . ." The list went on and on. Jesus invites us to appreciate the abundance that is ours rather than worry about what anyone else is getting. It can be hard, but where there's a will, there's a way.

Notas del Padre Rey

Fuerza de Voluntad

Un amigo mío se sintió secretamente herido cuando se anunciaron las disposiciones del testamento de su madre. Siempre había asumido que su madre le legaría su anillo de bodas a su hija. Ella era la única nieta y su único hermano no tenía hijos. En cambio, su madre le dejó el anillo a su ahijada, una joven que no estaba casada. Aunque sentía un gran afecto por la mujer que ahora poseía el anillo, comenzó a sentir ira y resentimiento hacia ella.

Odiaba cómo seguía carcomiéndolo y finalmente fue a hablar con su párroco. El sacerdote le pregunto: "¿Qué es lo que mas hierde?" "Es que si mi mamá me amaba o amaba a su ahijada. Sé que es una locura, pero eso es lo que empiezo a sentir", respondió. "Entonces, ¿por qué no hace un nuevo testamento enumerando todos los obsequios que tu madre les otorgó a ti y a tu hija durante su vida? ¿Con qué empezarías?" "Ella siempre nos hacía reír", dijo, con una gran sonrisa en su rostro, borrando las líneas de preocupación. "Y ella siempre preparaba la comida favorita de mi hija cada vez que íbamos a visitarla. Y ella . . ."

La lista seguía y seguía. Jesús nos invita a apreciar la abundancia que es nuestra en lugar de preocuparnos por lo que los demás obtienen. Puede ser difícil, pero donde hay voluntad, hay un camino.
